Module Goals

- Learn a gospel framework to help us better understand what God has done for us in Christ.
 - So that we continue to grow closer to God and more willing and able to glorify Him.
- Learn how to make connections between core gospel truths and everyday conversation.
 - So that we can naturally and organically nudge conversations to Jesus and the difference knowing Him makes.
- Pray for our family and friends who don't know Jesus yet.
 - So that they might share in knowing Jesus with us.

Session 6

Re-creation and Hope

Jesus promises us resurrection life with Him and each other when we trust Him. Living in hope.

Session Introduction

Watch the introduction video for Session 6.

- What did you learn from Jamie and Emily's conversation about evangelistic conversations?
- What encouraged you about what Sam and Julie-anne said about Re-creation and Hope?

In previous sessions we reflected on three stages of God's Story – Creation, Fall and Redemption – and how we might connect it to our daily conversations. You'll find a summary diagram at the end of the session.

- To help us revise, share with the group the conversation trajectory you worked on for homework. Help each other come up with more or better questions.

God's Story: Re-creation

This session we look at Re-creation. When we trust that Jesus died for us, our relationship with God is restored. God also promises that Jesus will return to save and to judge, and that when He does, all our relationships will be fully restored. God's story is one of hope for God's people.

In an act that points to His own resurrection, Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. Read John 11:1-45.

1. What happens? Is there anything that surprises you?

2. Jesus delays His arrival so that Lazarus is dead by the time He arrives. Why? 1-16

3. Jesus says to Martha: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?" 17-27
 - a. When does resurrection life start?
 - b. How is resurrection life received?
 - c. What does this add to what Martha already believed?
4. How does Jesus feel about the death of Lazarus and the grief of Lazarus' family? 32-38, (Cf 3,4)
5. This event points to Jesus' own death and resurrection, as well as ours. What reasons does Jesus give people to trust Him when He says that He is the resurrection and the life? 38-45. See also 20:26-31.

Jesus offers eternal life to all who believe in Him. Jesus' resurrection gives us a certain hope that He will return and restore our bodies, relationships, and the world. While our new life starts now, we still wait for the day when Jesus returns and we will experience this new life with God and each other in the world God has renewed, in all its fullness.

Having this hope ripples out and shapes the decisions we make in our lives.

Our Story: Hope - What hope is there for the future?

In a world where news stories often focus on looming destruction, people need hope. We need a future that we can dream about, plan for and look forward to. God’s story presents us with a beautiful and optimistic future. How do our friends talk about hope?

Choose a couple of the topics in the table below to discuss together. If one of them is a ‘live’ conversation that one of you is having with a friend now, definitely chose that one! Remember, we are looking for questions that create a conversational bridge that connects the topic to Jesus and the deeper questions of life.

General Topic	Specific questions about the heart, feelings and personal impact.	God Question Part A: Questions about values, opinions and the meaning of life.	God Question Part B: Direct questions about God, Creation and Identity.

I work in medicine because I like to help people.
Small acts of kindness between neighbours will make the world a better place._____
My mother was a good person. She is still watching over me from heaven.

I've got what I wanted but it just doesn't seem to be enough.
Your own topic –

The ideas we have discussed under Re-creation and Hope could connect with conversations about:

- Life after death.
- Disappointed hopes.
- Fear of missing out.
- Ultimate justice and equity.

Share

Share any stories of evangelistic opportunities in the past week: successes, failures, answered prayers, and interesting conversations. Take brief notes to remind you of what to pray for. If many group members have lots to say, consider breaking up into groups of three to four people now.

- What opportunities has God given you to share Jesus with others this week?
- Which people would you like to share Jesus with next week? When will you talk with them?
- Think of (one of) the people you are praying for.
 - What do they hope for in their future?
 - How confident are they in this hope?
 - How does their hope shape the way they live life now?

Pray

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

John 11:25-26 (NIV)

- | Thank God that in Christ we have eternal life and a bigger and better hope than anything the world offers us.
- | Ask for opportunities to talk with people about the future we look forward to with Jesus and His people.
- | Thank God and pray for the conversations or friends that people shared about earlier.

Homework

God's Story

Read Revelation 21:1-8. Using this passage and our discussion on John 11, answer the questions:

- What hope is there for the future?
- What does real peace look like?
- Is hope naïve or necessary?
- What do I look forward to when Jesus returns?

Our Story

- Watch Sam Chan connect 'your world to Jesus in 60 seconds.'
www.espressotheology.com/
- Consider two or three topics that interest you or that might be relevant for your friends. For each one:
 - How does he move from the topic to Jesus?

- What parts of God's story does Sam connect this topic with?
 - Creation and Identity
 - Fall and Brokenness
 - Redemption and Security
 - Re-creation and Hope
- Imagine this was a conversation with your friend. What series of questions could you ask to nudge the conversation in this direction?
